1. Our Service allows you to buy and sell items in an easy and fun way. You can find out more information about our Service and its features here. 2. You can sell your items through our Service by publishing pictures of the item you want to sell ("Sale Item"). When a user of the Service purchases such Sale Item, this is a

"Sale Transaction".3. Payment for transactions must take place via one of our third party payment providers, Cardboard Ninja Payments via Stripe or PayPal.4. In order to list an item for sale on Cardboard Ninja, you must sign up to Cardboard Ninja Payments via Stripe and connect a verified PayPal account to your Account.5. To use Cardboard Ninja Payments via Stripe to make or receive payment, you will be subject to the Stripe Connected Account Agreement and the Stripe Services Agreement. In order to sign-up to Cardboard Ninja Payments via Stripe, you must agree to a Direct Debit mandate with us. The mandate authorises Cardboard Ninja to debit your bank account by using the Bankers' Automated Clearing Services (Bacs) if, for example, the net activity in your account on a day is negative or we need you to fund your account for any other reason relating to the Stripe Connected Account Agreement. We will do so in accordance with our Direct Debit Policy.

6. If we need to reimburse a buyer because your Cardboard Ninja Payments account is in negative balance, you will be required to repay us for this amount and a debt will be created for the amount that you owe us for the refund. We will try to collect this amount from your bank account under our Direct Debit mandate. Whilst your Cardboard Ninja Payments account is in negative balance, Cardboard Ninja may suspend or terminate your access to the Service in accordance with section 8 of these Terms of Service.

7. To use PayPal to make or receive payment, you will need a PayPal account. If you are under 18 and plan to use a parent or third party's PayPal account, you must have express permission to use that PayPal account each time you make a transaction on our Service.8. Requesting, making or accepting payment for an item in any other way is a serious breach of the Terms of Service and may result in us suspending or terminating your access to the Service in accordance with section 8 of these Terms of Service.9. Please see here for more information about the fees we charge sellers for using our Services, as well as information about fees for PayPal and Cardboard Ninja Payments via Stripe.10. We want our Service to be a positive experience for our users and we ask that you honour the commitments you make to another user in respect of the swap, sale or purchase of a Sale Item.11. Any agreement for and/or purchase of a Sale Item is made solely between you and the seller. The application may include functionality for suggesting more effective selling, such as discounting Sale Items, but Sellers have, at all times, total discretion to set prices.

Complaints, questions and claims related to a Sale Item should be directed to the seller. Where users cannot resolve issues relating to a Sale Transaction between themselves, we will attempt to help mediate such disputes through our dispute resolution process. You can find out more about our dispute resolution procedure at section 15 of these Terms of Service.¹² As we are not the seller of any Sale Items, we have no control and do not give any commitment relating to the existence, quality, safety, genuineness or legality of Sale Items, the truth or accuracy of any picture or description of the Sale Items or any other content made available by users, the ability of sellers to sell Sale Items, the ability of buyers to pay for them or that a buyer or seller will actually complete a transaction or return the Sale Item, and we have no liability in this respect. Sellers are responsible for ensuring that any age-restricted Sale Items are marked clearly with the applicable age restriction (as required by law) and Buyers agree that they shall not attempt to purchase Sale Items if they are younger than the advertised and legal age restriction.¹³ To safeguard the interests of our users, we do not recommend using the Service to swap Sale Items. However, if you choose to do so, you should follow our guidelines for swapping safely available here on our help site. In any event, you acknowledge that you swap Sale Items entirely at your own risk and we have no liability in this respect.
